

FILM SPECIALS

SITTIN' ON A MILLION

When last we left Penny Lane, the filmmaker responsible for the wonderful documentary The Abortion Diaries, she was looking for anyone with first-, second- or even thirdhand knowledge of one of Troy's most notorious citizens, Mame Faye.

She must have found a few, because she's premiering her new film about the early-20th-century madam this weekend in Troy. Sittin' on a Million combines historical re-creations with interviews to bring to life the, um, golden age of prostitution in the Collar City.

The Saturday (June 14) screenings of Sittin' on a Million already are sold out. A third showing has been added on Sunday (June 15) at 1 PM at the Sanctuary for Independent Media (3361 6th Ave., Troy). Admission is $10 general, $5 students, seniors and low-income folks. For more info, call 331-2831.